Innisfail section of Queen Elizabeth II highway to be closed at night for power line removals

Innisfail... Motorists travelling north and south on the Queen Elizabeth II Highway at Innisfail can expect a short delay early Friday morning. At approximately 3 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 31, the highway will be closed to traffic in both directions to allow for the removal of overhead power lines. The work should take less than 20 minutes to complete.

Motorists are asked to use caution in the area and to obey all signs and flag persons.
