Highway 837 near Drumheller to close for bridge construction starting September 17

Drumheller...

Highway 837, between Highway 838 at Bleriot Ferry and Highway 575 at Nacmine, will be closed for bridge construction starting September 17. The existing bridge at the site is being replaced with a concrete culvert. The approximate cost of construction is $400,000. Construction will be complete by October 12, weather permitting.

Signs will be posted to redirect traffic, and the detours will be in place for the duration of construction. Motorists are asked to use caution in the area and to obey reduced speed limits and other traffic control devices.
