Klondyke Ferry opening delayed near Fort Assiniboine

Fort Assiniboine... Motorists are advised that the opening of the Klondyke Ferry near Fort Assiniboine will be delayed in order to complete hull repairs. Operations are anticipated to begin by the end of May.

A further advisory will be issued when the ferry is open to traffic.

The Alberta government operates seven ferries on the provincial highway network. Visit www.transportation.alberta.ca/1965.htm for more information on Alberta's highway ferries.
