

2020 Labour Mobility Dashboard

Labour mobility highlights

In 2020, 30% of the 46,183 new domestic applications for all regulated occupations in Alberta were from out-of-province certified individuals.

Between 2019 and 2020, the total number of out-of-province applications increased by 20%.

Professions with improving labour mobility rates for out-of-province workers

Engineers
3,065 applicants (58%)

Geoscientists
217 applicants (54%)

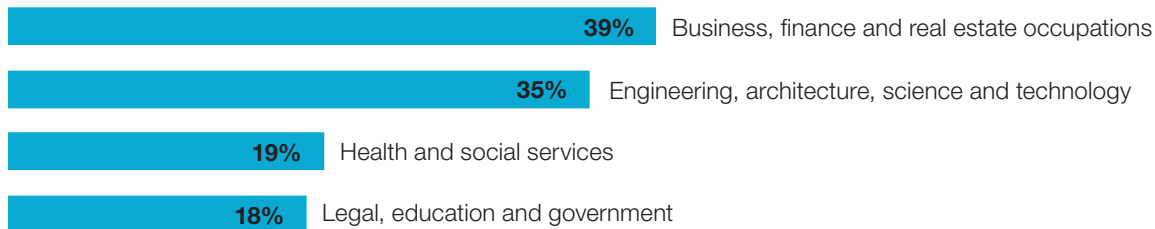

Paramedics (Emergency Medical Responders, Advanced Care and Primary Care Paramedics)
79 applicants (10.6%)

Driver examiners and instructors
1,339 applicants (91%)

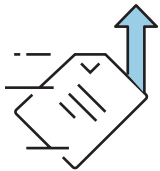

Occupational groups labour mobility rates

Occupations with the highest number of out-of-province applicants

| Occupation | Out-of-province Applicants | Occupation | Out-of-province Applicants |
|--|----------------------------|--|----------------------------|
|  Professional Engineers | 3,065 |  Driver Instructors | 1,174 |
|  General Insurance Agents | 1,945 |  Licensed Practical Nurses | 401 |
|  Dealing Representatives | 1,889 |  Teachers | 331 |
|  Life Insurance Agents | 1,412 |  Registered Nurses | 273 |
|  Accident and Sickness Agents | 1,253 |  Professional Geoscientists | 217 |

Processing times

In 2020, the average processing time for new Alberta applicants and out-of-province certified workers was 6 business days.

40% faster than the 2019 average of 10 business days.

17 occupations reported application processing times for out-of-province certified individuals of two days or less on average

| | | | |
|--|---|---|--|
|  Home Inspectors |  Optometrists |  Registered Professional Foresters |  Vehicle Inspection Technicians |
|  Land Surveyors |  Physicians and Surgeons |  Registered Psychiatric Nurses |  Veterinarians |
|  Medical Laboratory Technologists |  Physiotherapists |  Respiratory Therapists | |
|  Mortgage Brokers |  Real Estate Professionals |  Speech Language Pathologists | |