

Idaho and Alberta: Strong Partners, Trusted Neighbors

- 7,525 Idaho jobs are supported by trade with Alberta
- 904,000 U.S. jobs are supported by trade with Alberta
- Alberta is Idaho's 3rd largest trading partner

Idaho – Alberta Trade $USD

- Bilateral trade: $950.4 million
- Idaho exports to Alberta: $450.5 million
- Idaho imports from Alberta: $499.9 million

Idaho's Top Exports to Alberta $USD

- Fertilizers: $188 million
- Live animals: $77.9 million
- Motor vehicles & parts: $31.9 million
- Inorganic chemicals: $26.6 million
- Machinery: $20.2 million

Idaho exports to Alberta

*Data from 2023

Alberta Snapshot

Headquartered in Eagle, Idaho, Lamb Weston is a leading supplier of frozen potatoes, sweet potatoes, appetizer and vegetable products to restaurants and retailers around the world. For more than 60 years, Lamb Weston has led the frozen potato industry in innovation, and their products can be found in more than 100 countries.

Lamb Weston's processing plant in Taber, Alberta employs 275 people and processes Alberta-grown potatoes into frozen products approximately 295 days a year. This facility, along with other worldwide Lamb Weston locations, provides customers with the world class products.