

Mississippi and Alberta: Strong Partners, Trusted Neighbors

- 5,610 Mississippi jobs are supported by trade with Alberta
- 904,000 U.S. jobs are supported by trade with Alberta
- Alberta is Mississippi's 14th largest trading partner

Mississippi – Alberta Trade $USD

- Bilateral trade: $766.2 million
- Mississippi exports to Alberta: $67.7 million
- Mississippi imports from Alberta: $698.5 million

Mississippi's Top Exports to Alberta $USD

- Plastics: $35.2 million
- Machinery: $11.2 million
- Wood: $5.5 million
- Motor vehicles & parts: $2.7 million
- Electronic equipment: $1.8 million

Mississippi exports to Alberta

*Data from 2023

Alberta Snapshot

Ties between Alberta and Mississippi are growing in agriculture, energy, infrastructure and more.

Alberta exports agricultural machinery and equipment to Mississippi, supporting the state's farming industry. Energy companies like Calgary, Alberta-based Enbridge play a role in transporting natural gas to the region, while Mississippi provides market opportunities for Alberta's forestry products.

We also share cultural connections through tourism and historical exchanges, particularly in music and the arts.