

Pennsylvania and Alberta: Strong Partners, Trusted Neighbors

- 33,880 Pennsylvania jobs are supported by trade with Alberta
- 904,000 U.S. jobs are supported by trade with Alberta
- Alberta is Pennsylvania's 22nd largest trading partner

Pennsylvania – Alberta Trade $USD

- Bilateral trade: $2.4 billion
- Pennsylvania exports to Alberta: $252.4 million
- Pennsylvania imports from Alberta: $2.1 billion

Pennsylvania's Top Exports to Alberta $USD

- Energy: $57 million
- Machinery: $52 million
- Precision instruments: $27.3 million
- Plastics: $16.3 million
- Electronic equipment: $15.4 million

Pennsylvania exports to Alberta

*Data from 2023

Alberta Snapshot

Established in 1999, Calgary, Alberta-based Calfrac Well Services is a key energy services provider with operations throughout Canada, the United States, and Argentina. With approximately 1.2 million horsepower, Calfrac is the largest Canadian-headquartered pressure pumping company.

The API Q2 certified company maintains nine operating locations across the United States. The Smithfield, Pennsylvania facility was opened in 2009 and provides hydraulic fracturing and other well stimulation services designed to help increase the production of oil and gas.